NATIONAL DELEGATION: IMMIGRATION POLICY

El Paso, Texas
March 28 – 29, 2019

TRIP INFORMATION

The Pacific Council invites you to participate in an exclusive National Delegation to El Paso, Texas. This 2-day trip will explore immigration policy and the reality of its implementation at the border. Delegates will have a chance to meet with senior personnel in U.S. Customs and Border Protection, government officials, and immigration focused NGOs. The group will also cross the border to Ciudad Juarez to meet with elected officials and immigration personnel.

The Pacific Council's National Delegations visit U.S. sites and cities that are dynamic centers of policy, diplomacy, and security. Each delegation aims to better understand and address a key issue on the global agenda – from privacy and surveillance to water policy. In fostering closer ties with leaders, thinkers, partners, and institutions who are shaping our world, delegates serve as ambassadors representing the Pacific Council during the visit and bring back new ideas upon return. Members with related expertise or demonstrated interest actively contribute to achieving the goals of each fact-finding mission.

TRIP OVERVIEW:

- The registration fee is inclusive of hotel accommodations at Hotel Indigo (Grand King Rooms) from March 27-29 (three nights), ground transportation, all meals, staff support, and all logistical arrangements pertaining to the visit.
- Airfare is not included in the registration pricing. Delegates will need to arrange for their own flights to and from El Paso, Texas as well as their own airport transfers to and from the hotel.
- The trip will begin the morning of Thursday, March 28 and will run through the evening of Friday, March 29.
