Mexico Country Dialogue
Wednesday, May 24 – Friday, May 26, 2017
Mexico City

TRIP INFORMATION:

As part of our newly-launched Mexico Initiative, the Pacific Council invites you to participate in an exclusive 3-day visit to Mexico City May 24-26 with an optional weekend extension May 27-28. At a time of unprecedented complexity in the U.S.-Mexico relationship, this delegation will explore U.S.-Mexico relations as well as the country’s current economic, social, and political climate. We anticipate high level meetings with senior government officials and leaders of Mexican business and civil society. In addition, we hope to expose the delegation to the realities of modern Mexico, a dynamic society not well understood or represented in the United States, despite our proximity and shared history.

The Pacific Council’s Country Dialogues bring participants closer to the internal workings of countries that figure prominently in world affairs, through high-level meetings with senior business, cultural, and political leaders. Our delegations aim to foster a deeper understanding of international affairs and to strengthen global discourse through exchanges with key political and cultural stakeholders. As ambassadors of the Pacific Council on International Policy, participants have the opportunity to represent the West Coast’s key interests and concerns in meetings with local leaders while gaining exposure to the rich cultural heritage of each country they visit.

PRICING & TRIP OPTIONS:

- The registration fee is inclusive of luxury hotel accommodations at the JW Marriott Hotel from May 23 – 26 (four nights) or with the extension, May 23 – 28 (six nights); all ground transportation; airport transfers; all meals; staff support; and all logistical arrangements pertaining to the visit.
- Airfare is not included in the registration pricing. Delegates will need to arrange for their own flights to and from Mexico City, Mexico.
